DAY 1: ARRIVAL DAY

Pick up point shall be at Nairobi Kencom stage opposite International Life House by a representative from Royal Star Expeditions in a group sharing open roof top Land Cruiser. Your journey shall begin at 7:00 AM with a scenic drive from Nairobi to Lake Nakuru National Park, located about 2.5 to 3 hours away. As you leave the bustling city behind, you shall pass through the stunning Great Rift Valley, enjoying panoramic views of the escarpment and the expansive landscape below.

Upon arrival in Lake Nakuru, you shall head to check-in at Sarova Lion Hill Game Lodge and enjoy your leisurely lunch.

Named after "The Lion Hill," on which the lodge sits, Sarova Lion Hill Lodge offers you more than just a stay. It's your gateway to adventure & relaxation within the remarkable Lake Nakuru National Park. Wake up to breathtaking views from your private terrace, and enjoy the comforts of the classic chalet-style rooms. Whether you're indulging in world-class cuisine, unwinding by the pool, or relaxing with an outdoor spa treatment, this is your chance to connect with nature in a truly special way.

DAY 2: FULL DAY GAME DRIVE IN LAKE NAKURU NATIONAL PARK

On the second day of your safari, you will have a full-day game drive in a safari vehicle. This means you will only return at sunset after enjoying all the views of the game park. You shall wake up early by 7:00 AM to savor a hearty breakfast, without wasting time you shall embark on your full day game drive. Get ready for an unforgettable safari adventure as you delve into the heart of Nakuru and discover its untamed beauty.

So much so like the evening game drives, morning game drives are an overflow of wildlife, birds and unique ambiences. Sunrise mainly makes this one a little more memorable. Your exclusive open roof top land cruiser traverses the breathtaking panorama, exposing you to varieties of wildlife and beautiful vegetation. You will get to learn so much more from our guide.

Morning game drive offers a captivating opportunity to witness the African wilderness come alive with the dawn of a new day. Animals are often more active making it ideal time for wildlife viewing. Be on the lookout for predators on the move as well as catch glimpses of diurnal species before they seek shade during the heat of the day.

The soft morning light casts a golden glow over the landscapes, enhancing the beauty of scenery providing an excellent light for photography. It is magical time to capture images of actively moving wildlife.

Your game drive will be led by an experienced guide who will not only point out wildlife but also engage you in the process. Learn about animal behavior, habitats and conservation efforts while actively participating in spotting wildlife. Feel free to ask your guide to stop for you to take better photos or a video of something interesting.

By 1:00 PM, your guide will assist in finding the perfect spot for your picnic lunch, whether it's under the shade of a towering acacia tree or overlooking a scenic vista.

Spread out your picnic blankets and unpack your delicious lunch, enjoying a leisurely meal in the heart of nature. Take your time savoring each bite as you soak in the tranquility of your surroundings, with only the sounds of the wilderness as your sound track.

One of the most exciting parts of the safari is having a picnic lunch in the middle of the savannah.

It also makes time for some very Instagram-worthy photos, so take every chance you can to immortalize your safari. After lunch, you will embark on the second part of your safari.

Your driver guide will take you to a different part of the vast park, giving you a chance to experience everything that Lake Nakuru has to offer.
