For the most memorable part, the ancient coral caves of Shimoni served as a pen in which over 1 million slaves would wait before being shipped to the slave market in Zanzibar, Tanzania & onwards to Yemen between 1860 and 1895. It is believed that the slaves were held here for 2-3 weeks, before being packed in dhows – up to 1000 at a time. As many as 400 died during that voyage and were thrown overboard to be eaten by sharks. You will explore the underground chambers where slaves were held before being transported.

A TOUR AT KONGO MOSQUE

The Kongo Mosque is one of the iconic tourist attraction sites in Diani. It was built by Arab traders back in the 14th century and is the oldest mosque in East Africa. What is more surprising is the fact that Muslims still gather there regularly for prayers.

It is surrounded by a beautiful garden with big baobab trees, which the Arabs planted. While outside, you can see the Kongo River and the Indian Ocean. This view makes it an excellent picturesque place in Diani, Kenya.

Kongo Mosque is one of the last few surviving relics dating back to ancient civilization. Only a handful of the coral mosques can be used, and this is one of them. Their architecture is a strong reminder of the coastal area's history.

CHALE ISLAND DAY TRIP

Right at the heart of Msambweni bay, 12 km south of Diani Beach, lies Chale Island. The Island is more of a heed place than an Island, and the native coastal people use it as a worshipping area. It has a spectacular white beach, beautifully fringed by coral reefs, making it a haven for tourists seeking a more romantic treat.

From its adequately equipped water sports center to fascinating boat excursions, Chale Island ultimately has a lot to offer. Different diving and water sports take place on the island, and you can engage in boat snorkeling, beach snorkeling, kayaking, local catamaran sailing, and game fishing among other activities.

More Activities to Do at Chale Island:

Just 20 km south of the Island lies the Watamu Marine National Park and Reserve. The reserve is endowed with several marine animals. There are arranged boat rides, snorkeling and dolphin sightings in the reserve.
